

YOUR BUSINESS IS THE LAW

Our business is managing a retirement fund that is much more than just a savings vehicle.

The Legal Provident Fund is tailored for the retirement savings needs of employees of legal practitioners.

As a participating employer on the Legal Provident Fund, you can offer your employees:

The opportunity to save – put money aside for retirement tax efficiently.

Cover in the event of death or disability – optional cost-effective insured risk benefit cover.

Employee communication – assist employees to reach their retirement goals.

We are a well-managed umbrella fund, with costs and charges carried across many employers. This makes the fund cost effective for employers of all sizes – whether you have one employee or more than 500.

STATEMENT BY THE GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE BAR OF SOUTH AFRICA ON THE ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF CORETH NAUDE SC

Robert Kuykendall

The General Council of the Bar of South Africa (“the GCB”) condemns in the strongest possible terms the attempted assassination of Coreth Naude SC, a member of the Pretoria Society of Advocates.

This despicable action is an attempt to undermine the rule of law and foster a culture of impunity within South Africa, contrary to the principles and values of our Constitution. It is designed to deter officers of the court from carrying out their lawful functions and to obstruct the pursuit of truth and the equal application of the law to all.

Advocates perform their roles without fear or favour and are not deterred from that path by lawless acts of intimidation. The GCB is proud of the contribution of the members of its affiliated Bars, who play a vital role in upholding the rule of law in South Africa. It sends its deepest respect and admiration, and best wishes for a speedy recovery, to Coreth Naude SC and her family.

The GCB calls upon law-enforcement authorities to do their utmost to apprehend the perpetrators and bring them to justice.
