MEDICAL NEGLIGENCE

Intermediate Advocacy Training Course

WALLENBERG, Stellenbosch

8 – 11 January 2025

The course is aimed at counsel between 3 and 7 years' call who practice or aspire to practice in matters concerning medical negligence.

In addition to presentations and discussions on medical matters in civil litigation, HPCSA hearings and inquest proceedings, the purpose written course material will provide participants with an opportunity to engage in factual and expert witness handling in a matter culminating in a trial.

In addition to our own esteemed advocacy trainers, the faculty will include international trainers from Australia, Hong Kong, Singapore and the United Kingdom.

A non-refundable course fee of R14 000 for GCB members is payable by 30 November 2024. The course fee for non-GCB members and international participants is R60 000. The course fee covers the training, materials, accommodation, all meals and transfers between Cape Town International Airport and Stellenbosch but excludes any airfares which shall be for participants' own account. The GCB is offering financial assistance in the form of a remission of half of the course fee to five GCB-member applicants who cannot afford the full fee.

There are 40 places on the course.

Applications close on 4 November 2024.

The alacrity with which you apply will be a factor in selecting successful participants.

Please visit the GCB website to apply <https://gcbisa.co.za/training>. For more information, please send an email to Training@gcbisa.co.za.
